

Radio station K-LOVE is the main station that I, and many others listen to. I do not want to have it forced off the air by LPFM. I enjoy the music and Christian format, and personally help support it. This is the best contemporary Christian music station in the San Antonio area, and its right to broadcast using the FM translators should not be endangered by alternate services. Thank you for your attention to my message....